INTRODUCTION

Public Policy

- “In recognition of the fact that a representative government of the American type is dependent upon an informed electorate, it is declared to be the policy of this state that the public is entitled to the fullest and most complete information regarding the affairs of government as is compatible with the conduct of governmental business.”

— Wis. Stat. § 19.81(1)

Public Policy (continued)

- The open meetings law is to be broadly interpreted to promote the policy of openness. See Wis. Stat. § 19.81(4).
- On close questions, courts will prefer an interpretation of the law that favors open government.
- Courts disfavor any interpretation that would facilitate evasion of the policy of openness.
- Bottom Line: The purpose of the open meetings law is to ensure openness.
 - Only a few limited exemptions permit confidentiality

Essentials

- Generally, the open meetings law requires that all meetings of governmental bodies:
 - must be preceded by public notice; and
 - must be publicly held in a place that is reasonably accessible and open at all times to all members of the public;
 - except in limited situations in which a closed session is specifically authorized.

GOVERNMENTAL BODIES

Governmental Body

- “‘Governmental body’ means a state or local agency, board, commission, council, department or public body corporate and politic created by constitution, statute, ordinance, rule or order” Wis. Stat. § 19.82(1).
- Translation:
 - Any kind of collective governmental entity (state or local level).
 - Created by constitution, statute, ordinance, rule or order.
 - Without regard to what that entity is called (i.e., a board, commission, committee, council, etc.).
- Includes purely advisory bodies, governmental corporations, quasi-governmental corporations, and formally constituted subunits
- Generally, a governmental body does not include a group of administrative staff of a government agency.
 - Highly fact-specific issue.

Governmental Bodies: Creation

- “[C]reated by constitution, statute ordinance, rule or order”
 - Refers not to the kind of power wielded by a governmental body, but rather to how the body is created.
- How to determine whether a body is created by constitution, statute, ordinance or rule?
 - Look it up.
- How to determine whether a body is created by order?
 - An order can include any directive – whether formal or informal – that creates a body and assigns it some governmental responsibilities. See 78 Op. Att’y Gen. 67 (1989).
 - Such a directive may be issued by any governmental official or entity, including a governmental body, that has the power to delegate the governmental responsibilities in question.
 - Note: This is a very fact-specific standard, so there are no bright-line rules.

MEETINGS

Meeting

- “Meeting’ means the convening of members of a governmental body for the purpose of exercising the responsibilities, authority, power or duties delegated to or vested in the body.” Wis. Stat. § 19.82(1).
 - Not limited to face-to-face gatherings or physical presence together.
 - Examples: telephone calls, emails, virtual meetings, other electronic forms of communication

Meetings: The Showers Test

- The Wisconsin Supreme Court established a two-part test. State ex rel. Newspapers v. Showers, 135 Wis. 2d 77, 398 N.W.2d 154 (1987).
 - A meeting occurs whenever:
 - Purpose requirement:
 - Members convene for the purpose of conducting governmental business
 - Numbers requirement:
 - The number of members present is sufficient to determine the body's course of action
 - Includes negative quorums

Showers Test: “Purpose” Requirement

- “Conducting governmental business” is an expansive concept that is not limited to formal or final decision making.
- “Conducting governmental business” includes:
 - preliminary decisions
 - discussion
 - information gathering
 - interaction among members is not required
- State ex rel. Badke v. Greendale Vill. Bd., 173 Wis. 2d 553, 494 N.W.2d 408 (1993).

Showers Test: “Numbers” Requirement

- This number is not necessarily equal to a majority of the membership or to a quorum of the body.
- A sufficient number of members to determine a body’s course of action can refer to either:
 - the affirmative power to pass an action or
 - the negative power to defeat an action
 - Sometimes referred to as a “negative quorum”
- Fact-specific depending on the governmental body

Meetings: Serial or “Walking” Quorum

- “Walking” Quorum: A meeting resulting from a series of gatherings among body members
- Elements of a “walking” quorum:
 - A series of gatherings among groups of members
 - Each smaller in size than a quorum
 - Agreement to act uniformly
 - In sufficient number to control the body
- The “walking” quorum concept is intended to prevent circumvention of the law through the use of an agent or surrogate to obtain collective agreements of members outside a public meeting.
- Practical Tips:
 - “Walking” quorum issues are complex and fact-specific
 - Consult with your legal counsel

NOTICE

General Notice Requirement

- “Every meeting of a governmental body shall be preceded by public notice”
Wis. Stat. § 19.83(1).
- Notice must be communicated to:
 - The public
 - News media that have filed a written request for notice
 - The official newspaper for the community in question
 - If none, then a news medium likely to give notice in the area
- Presiding officer is legally responsible for ensuring notice requirements are met
 - Tasks may be delegated but presiding officer liable for any violations

Manner of Notice to the Public

- Notice to the public must be made using one of the following methods:
 - Posting in at least 3 public places likely to give notice to persons affected
 - Posting in at least 1 public place and on the body's Internet site
 - Paid publication in news medium likely to give notice to persons affected

Timing and Content of Notice

- “Every meeting of a governmental body shall be preceded by public notice”
Wis. Stat. § 19.83(1).
- Notice must be communicated at least 24 hours before the meeting to:
 - The public, news media that have filed a written request for notice, and the official newspaper for the community in question
- The meeting notice must reasonably inform the public of the time, date, place, and subject matter of the meeting.

NOTICE

Content of Public Notice: Subject Matter

- How detailed must a notice be in describing the subject matter of a meeting?
 - The Wisconsin Supreme Court has said that the description must be reasonable under all of the relevant circumstances of the particular case. State ex rel. Buswell v. Tomah Area Sch. Dist., 2007 WI 71, 301 Wis. 2d 178, 732 N.W.2d 804.
- Relevant circumstances include:
 - The burden of providing more detail
 - The degree of public interest in the subject
 - Whether the subject is non-routine
- Notice should not use generic, uninformative subject-matter designations, such as:
 - Old or new business
 - Agenda revisions
 - Miscellaneous business, etc.
- Notice should include the subject matter of any contemplated closed session, including relevant statutory exemption(s) and nature of business to be considered

OPEN SESSIONS

Open Session Requirements

- “[A]ll meetings of all state and local governmental bodies shall be publicly held in places reasonably accessible to members of the public and shall be open to all citizens at all times unless otherwise expressly provided by law.” Wis. Stat. § 19.81(2).
- “‘Open session’ means a meeting which is held in a place reasonably accessible to members of the public and open to all citizens at all times” Wis. Stat. § 19.82(3).

Open Sessions: Citizen Participation

- The open meeting law ensures the right to attend and observe open session meetings
- The law does not require a body to allow the public to speak or actively participate
- However, the law permits a portion of an open meeting to be set aside as a public comment period
 - Public comment periods are not required
 - Such a period must be included on the meeting notice
- During a public comment period, a body:
 - may receive information from the public and
 - may discuss any subject raised by the public but
 - may not take formal action

Open Sessions: Recording

- Wis. Stat. § 19.90:
 - Bodies must make a reasonable effort to accommodate anyone who wants to record, film, or photograph an open session.
 - Recording or photographing activities may not disrupt the meeting.
- The open meetings law does not require governmental bodies to permit citizens to record closed sessions.

Open Sessions: Voting

- Unless otherwise specifically provided, no secret ballots may be used except for electing officers of the body.
- Any member may require a roll-call vote.

Open Sessions: Record Keeping

- All motions and roll call votes must be recorded and preserved
 - Law does not specify a timeframe in which such records must be created.
 - However, it is advisable that motions and roll call votes should be recorded at the time of the meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable
- Voting records must be open to public inspection to the extent required under the public records law
- The open meetings law does not itself require bodies to keep formal minutes of meetings
 - However, minutes are often required by other statutes for certain types of bodies

CLOSED SESSIONS

Closed Sessions: Required Procedure

- Every meeting must begin in open session
- To go into closed session, a motion must be duly made and carried in open session
- The vote of each member must be recorded
- Before a vote to go into closed session, the presiding officer must announce:
 - The statutory exemption(s) authorizing the closed session and
 - The nature of the business to be considered

Closed Sessions: Scope and Attendance

- Limited scope
 - When a governmental body is in closed session, it must limit its discussion:
 - to the specific business for which the closed session was authorized and
 - may not take up any other matters
- Attendance
 - A body has discretion to allow anyone to attend a closed session
 - No duly elected or appointed member of a body may be excluded from any meeting of that body—whether closed or open
 - A member also may not be excluded from a meeting of a subunit of the body, unless the body has a rule to the contrary

Closed Sessions: Voting

- Under a prior version of the law, the Wisconsin Supreme Court held that a body can vote in closed session, if the vote is integral to the authorized subject of the closed session. State ex rel. Cities Serv. Oil Co. v. Bd. of Appeals, 21 Wis. 2d 516, 124 N.W.2d 809 (1963).
- More recently, the Wisconsin Court of Appeals indicated that a body should vote in open session unless a closed vote is expressly authorized. State ex rel. Schaeve v. Van Lare, 125 Wis. 2d 40, 370 N.W.2d 271 (Ct. App. 1985).
 - The Wisconsin Court of Appeals did not discuss Cities Service Oil Co. and the older decision remains binding precedent.
- DOJ advises bodies to vote in open session unless it would compromise the purpose of the closed session.

Closed Sessions: Authorized Subjects

- The specific subjects for which closed sessions are authorized (exemptions) are set out in Wis. Stat. § 19.85(1).
- The following slide includes some commonly used exemptions; it is not a complete list. For a more complete discussion of this topic, see DOJ's *Wisconsin Open Meetings Law Compliance Guide.

- (a) Deliberating about a case that has been the subject of a judicial or quasi-judicial trial or hearing before the body.
- (b) Considering dismissal, demotion, licensing or discipline of a public employee or the investigation of charges against the employee.
- (c) Considering employment, promotion, compensation, or performance evaluation data of a public employee.
- (d) Considering specific applications of probation, extended supervision or parole, or considering strategy for crime detection or prevention.
- (e) Deliberating or negotiating the purchase of public properties, the investing of public funds, or conducting “other specified public business” whenever competitive or bargaining reasons require a closed session.
- (f) Considering sensitive personal information that would be likely to have a substantial adverse effect upon an individual’s reputation.
- (g) Conferring with legal counsel about strategy related to litigation.

ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement: Options and Penalties

- The open meetings law may be enforced by the attorney general, local district attorney, or by a private relator. Wis. Stat. § 19.97:
- Penalties:
 - Civil forfeiture of $25 to $300 per violation for any member of a body who knowingly attends a meeting held in violation of the open meetings law or otherwise violates the law
 - A member is not liable for attending an unlawful meeting if the member makes or votes in favor of a motion to prevent the violation from occurring. Wis. Stat. § 19.96.
 - Members of a body who — acting openly and in good faith — seek and rely upon the advice of the body’s official legal counsel may not be found liable for any violation
- An action taken at an unlawful meeting may be voidable if:
 - the court finds that the public interest in the enforcement of the open meetings law outweighs the public interest in sustaining the validity of the action
