Port Washington EMT Charged with Possession of Child Pornography

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis. – The Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ) Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) today announced that Timothy Garret Lund, a part-time Emergency Medical Technician employed, at the time, by the Port Washington Fire Department, has been charged with one count of possession of child pornography.

The criminal complaint, filed by the Ozaukee County District Attorney's Office, alleges that Lund sent child sexual abuse material online, while logged into an IP address controlled by the City of Port Washington Police Department, which shares internet access with the City of Port Washington Fire Department. Lund was arrested and charged last week.

This charge is merely an accusation. As in any criminal case, the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

This investigation was led by DCI with assistance from the Port Washington Police Department. The Port Washington Fire Department is cooperating with this investigation. The Ozaukee County District Attorney's Office is prosecuting the case.
